

as individual files in addition to your MS Word or pdf file to avoid possible delay in publication. Your MS Word or pdf file must still contain any figures in the text and not at the end of the document.

The journal is printed in black-and-white. Therefore, we prefer that authors supply figures in greyscale so authors should ensure that colour is not critical to the understanding of any figures, and should not describe elements of the figure in terms of their colours.

REFERENCES

Citation

Cite references in the text by name and year in parentheses. Some examples:

Text Text Text (Becker, 1993).

Text Text Text (Becker, 1993; Cox et al., 2009).

Reference standards

The list of references should only include works that are cited in the text and that have been published or accepted for publication. Personal communications and unpublished works should only be mentioned in the text. Do not use footnotes or endnotes as a substitute for a reference list.

Reference list entries should be alphabetized by the last names of the first author of each work.
